NOTICE OF INJURY OR CIRCUMSTANCES

(Pursuant to Wisconsin Statute § 893.80(1d)(a))

Claimant Name: Alyssa Schukar

Claimant Address:

Alyssa Schukar
4141 N. Henderson Road
#527
Arlington, VA 22203

Claimant Phone Number: (414) 255-3811 (Attorney Nathaniel Cade, Jr.)

Date and Time of Event Giving Rise to Claim: August 25, 2020

Location of Event Giving Rise to the Claim:

Kenosha County Courthouse
912 56th Street
Kenosha, WI 53140

State of the Circumstances of the Event Giving Rise to the Claim, including the names of all persons involved, the identification of witnesses, if any, and the names and job titles of the local governmental body's employees or agents involved (use additional sheets if necessary):

Ms. Schukar is a photojournalist. Ms. Schukar was working freelance for the New York Times. She was working during the Kenosha protests over the unprovoked shooting of Jacob Blake and was taking photos of the protestors and various law enforcement agencies present who were stationed outside of the Kenosha County Courthouse. In the evening of August 25, 2020, numerous rubber bullets were fired by unknown law enforcement agents and officers.

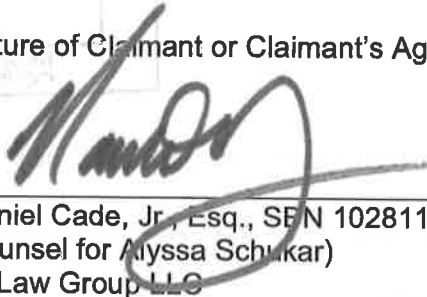

A rubber bullet hit Ms. Schukar in her left hand, and she required surgery on that hand, and still is undergoing physical therapy.

Based on the location where Ms. Schukar was located, there is no doubt that she was not a protestor and was a member of the credentialed press. The only purpose for rubber bullets to have been shot at her would be for law enforcement agents to have purposefully targeted her as a member of the press.

Prior notice of these injuries and law enforcement actions were provided by the New York Times to the Kenosha Sheriff's Department and the City of Kenosha Police Department.

Relief sought: Payment of $350,000 from each named entity.
