Name of the Commission, Committee or Board for which you are applying:

Local Emergency Planning Committee

Personal Statement: Please indicate why you believe you would be a valuable addition to the Commission, Committee or Board for which you are applying. If more space is needed, please attach a separate sheet.

I have spent most of my career in the coatings and specialty chemicals industry. I am familiar with regulatory requirements and industry best practices needed to run a facility safely. Some of my assignments included Plants under PSM requirements. I have completed HAZWOP training for technician level as well as incident command. At my Rustoleum facility in Pleasant Prairie our production involves compliance with these requirements. Our plant and our overall company would like to engage with our local emergency planning officials.
