JUDGMENT

Case No. 22 CV 862

The above-entitled action for foreclosure of tax liens In Rem provided by Section 75.521 having come on to be heard before the Court on December 13, 2022, the petitioner Teri Jacobson, Kenosha County Treasurer, appeared in person and by her attorney, Kenosha County Sr. Assistant Corporation Counsel John F. Stats., Guardian ad Litem, appearing for all persons known or unknown who have or may have an interest in the lands described in the said List of Tax Liens and who are or may be minors or individuals adjudicated incompetent at the date of the filing of such tax liens, having appeared and reporting to the Court.

Upon the record and affidavits in this matter, the Court makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

- (2) The required Petition and affidavits of filing, publication, posting and mailing have been filed.
- (3) Attorney Lisa Bouterse, as appointed Guardian ad Litem in this matter, has attempted to notify all non-redeeming parties of the proceeding who may be minors or incompetents and

John,

I am in receipt of your letter dated July 1, 2022, on July 11, 2022, regarding a lot east of 1st Avenue, at about 71st Street. The property appears to be an outlot consisting of lakefront property upon which riprap is placed. You ask whether the City would be willing to take the property from the County, should the County exercise its rights to claim the property due to delinquent taxes. I have asked the City departments, and found that the City is willing to take this property. It is our understanding the conversation that you and I had this afternoon, that the County would acquire the property through the in rem process.

Please let us know how you would like to proceed.
