WHEREAS, National Preparedness Month National raises awareness about the importance of preparing for disasters and emergencies that could happen at any time and creates an ideal opportunity for Kenosha County residents to prepare their homes, businesses, and communities for any type of emergency, including natural disasters; and

WHEREAS, Kenosha County has suffered from severe flooding events, tornados, and blizzards; and

WHEREAS, planning before a disaster is the best way to improve community recovery from disaster; and

WHEREAS, when individuals take responsibility for preparing their families and their communities, the chance of reducing fatalities and economic devastation, and returning to normalcy following a disaster is greatly increased; and

WHEREAS, Kenosha County partners with federal, state, local, private, and volunteer agencies to educate individuals on how to prepare for local hazards;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Kenosha County Board of Supervisors does recognize September 2023, as National Preparedness Month in Kenosha County; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Kenosha County Board of Supervisors encourages all citizens to take the proper safety measures to prepare for natural disasters by making their own emergency preparedness plan, and work together toward creating a stronger, more resilient county.
