Since 2018, I have served as a Kenosha County Board Supervisor, representing District #7. Many residents in my district utilize the services of the RKCAA, and I believe that my service on the RKCAA Board would allow me to better represent our community's interests and needs, would and help me to better connect the residents of Kenosha and Racine County with the information and services they may qualify for or need.

I have also served on the board's Executive Committee, Human Services Committee, Legislative Committee, Public Works & Facilities Committee, Mental Health/Alcohol/Other Drugs Committee, Sustainable Kenosha County Committee, and the Racial & Ethnic Equity Commission.
