Ms. Kerkman and Mr. Nudo,

This letter is to formally request your consideration to sell the land located at 2701 47th Avenue, parcel number 07-222-23-450-002 to the City of Kenosha. The City of Kenosha would then work on securing a developer to build single family, owner-occupied residences on this property.

The property was taken under a tax lien for failure to pay property taxes and special assessments. As of August 25, 2023, the total unpaid balance of taxes and special assessments is $754460.18. The special assessments are from the Kenosha Water Utility and City of Kenosha road construction project. It is my understanding that the balance of unpaid taxes as well as the agriculture assessment is $8705.28.

Pursuant to WI State Statute 75.35 (2)(f) and in conformance with the recent US Supreme Court ruling in Tyler v Hennepin County (MN) docket #22-166, the City will pay the delinquent property taxes due and will work with the potential developer on the unpaid special assessments that are due to the City of Kenosha as the taxing entity.

Please let me know if the County is willing to sell the property to the City of Kenosha and what steps are needed to complete this sale and transfer of title. It is our belief that having the land developed with single family owner occupied homes is a benefit to all the taxing bodies

Respectfully,

John W. Morrissey
City Administrator
