CITIZEN COMMENTS

Jack Rose, 4315 68th St., stated the Human Services Budget is the life blood for mental health in Kenosha County. The Crisis Prevention Center has 16 beds but only enough staff for 11 beds. The center is well worth the money and saved the county around $42,000.

Jason Rosell, 912 56th St. stated he is the Judge for Branch 2 and Chief Judge for SE Wisconsin as well. He along with Judges Schroeder, Wagner, Bastianelli and Wilk appealed to the board for funding to restore the ceiling in Judge Schroeder's courtroom which is also the County's Ceremonial Courtroom.

Bruce Schroeder, 912 56th St., stated he also would like to see the ceiling of his courtroom restored. Around 20 years ago it was talked about being restored but the funds were not available. It would be much less money to do it now and keep the courthouse fully restored, beautiful and functional for another 100 years.

At this time, Supervisor Rose presented the 2019 Kenosha County Budget.

It was moved by Supervisor Grady to adjourn. Seconded by Rodriguez.

Motion carried.

Meeting adjourned at 7:23 p.m.
