

Assisted Living Options in Kenosha County

Assisted living facilities are for individuals who need some level of care monitoring services but choose to live in a setting without 24-hour access to nursing services. Wisconsin licenses, certifies, registers and regulates these types of assisted living facilities:

- Adult Family Home (AFH)
- Community-Based Residential Facility (CBRF)
- Residential Care Apartment Complex (RCAC)

This list will describe the 3 types, and then list the options within Kenosha County. Fees for any of these options is either thru long-term care insurance, one of the state Medicaid programs, or private pay. If you'd like to see if you or a loved one qualifies for a Medicaid program, please contact the Kenosha County ADRC for more information, 262-605-6646.

Adult Family Homes care for residents beyond room and board but may provide only 7 hours a week of nursing care.

Adult Family Homes provide supervision, room and board. Homes have up to 4 residents with private and semi-private rooms available. Each location may have a specific license, call for further details. This list contains locations that have been licensed for at least one year. If you'd like to see the full list of Kenosha County Adult Family homes, read more about licensing, view their compliance history or obtain a guide to help you choose a location, etc. please access the DHS website:

Complaints/Concerns

For complaints, questions and/or concerns regarding the care and the rights of residents in adult family home facilities, contact:

Wisconsin Division of Quality Assurance (DQA) at 1-800-642-6552 or complete online complaint form:

<http://dhs.wisconsin.gov/bqaconsumer/HealthCareComplaints.htm>

Community Based Residential Facilities (CBRF's) are community living facilities that provides room and board, supervision, and supportive services to persons who are unable to live on their own in the community or who choose to live in these facilities. It is intended that these facilities be as "home-like" as possible and be in or near the individual's community. The primary goal is to assist individuals in having the highest level of independence they are capable of. They may be private or public, for-profit or not-for-profit; but all must meet the same licensing standards

CBRF's provide some needed services above basic room and board. CBRF's are not required to have professional nurses on duty, 24 hours a day, as in nursing homes, but may wish to provide limited nursing services. CBRF's are required to be staffed 24 hours a day.

There are three sizes of CBRF's are based upon the number of residents: small (8 or less), medium (9-20), and large (21 or more). They may also differ by class, which is determined by the residents' ability to move about (ambulating), to follow directions (mental capacity), and to act for self-preservation under emergency conditions.

Payments for CBRF's care may come from a variety of sources, including, but not limited to, the following:

1. Personal resources, such as, but not limited to, savings accounts, pensions, or Social Security and related benefits.
2. Veteran's care benefits.
3. Special funding may be available. Anyone needing funding assistance must have an assessment to determine eligibility.

Contact the Aging and Disability Resource Center for an assessment. There is no guarantee that funds will be available to pick up the cost when the person's resources are depleted. For further information, contact the Kenosha County Aging and Disability Resource Center at: 262-605-6646 or 800-472-8008.

Email: adrc@kenoshacounty.org

4. It is important to contact whatever CBRF facility you may be interested in, to better understand their admission criteria, including if they require a specific number of months of ability to pay privately in order to confirm admission.

NOTE: *If you are applying for or think you will need to apply for public funding, please be aware that you will likely have to contribute to your care costs and could be left with a minimal amount of funds for personal spending each month. It may be beneficial to contact the Kenosha Co. ADRC (262-605-6646), for a Long-Term Care Consultation prior to committing to an apartment

CBRF's are required to provide or arrange these five basic services to all residents, if needed:

1. Health monitoring
2. Assistance with medications
3. Information and referral services
4. Leisure time services
5. Personal care services such as help with dressing, eating, bathing, grooming, toileting, and mobility.

Added services may be provided in a CBRF to assist residents with their personal needs and goals such as moving to more independent living, counseling, transportation, and money management.

There are certain written requirements that all CBRF's must maintain. The following documents verify and assure the provision of the services listed above.

1. Program Statement

This provides a complete picture of the operation of the facility so that you become more familiar with the program and services by reading it.

2. Admission Agreement

This is a written contract between the resident and facility stating the services provided and the fee agreement.

3. Individual Service Plan

This is a list of services needed by the resident and the services provided or arranged for by the facility staff.

4. Residents Rights

This is a list of Wisconsin Statutes, which ensure basic human rights of CBRF residents. They will be explained and given to individuals upon admission.

5. Complaint Procedure

This is a procedure, which is available to all residents to express their concerns about the CBRF and resident's rights.

or 262-878-6700*Residential Care Apartment Complexes (RCAC)

Residential Care Apartment Complexes (RCAC) are independent apartment units in which provide room and board, up to 28 hours per week of supportive care, personal care, and nursing services.

RCAC means a place where 5 or more adults live in independent apartments. Each apartment has an individual lockable entrance and exit. It includes a kitchen with a stove, individual bathroom, sleeping and living areas. It provides the resident with up to 28 hours per week of supportive, personal, and nursing services.

NOTE: Special funding may be available to help pay for care in some RCAC's that are certified by the state but does not pay the cost of room and board. These must be paid out of his or her own funds. If you are applying for or think you will need to apply for funding, please be aware that you will likely have to pay for part to your care costs and could be left with a minimal amount of funds for personal spending each month. It may be helpful to contact the Kenosha Co. ADRC (262-605-6646), prior to committing to an apartment. Individuals requiring funding assistance must have an assessment to determine eligibility. For further information, contact the Kenosha County Aging and Disability Resource Center at: 262-605-6646 or 1-800-472-8008.
